

BEST PRACTICE-1

1.Title: Providing a great platform to Women Empowerment

2. Objectives:

1. To provide them confidence to take a step.
2. To make awareness stop the physical exploitation.
3. To increase the Knowledge of Their Right As per Indian and World law.
4. To make them Proficient entrepreneur.
5. To make them proficient by Physical, Mental, Social& economical.

3. Context:

Our institution is situated in rural area and surrounded by the number of villages with agricultural background, hence all stake holders are belongs to not only poor but also labor family, so we have to face the lots of difficulties during their up down travelling to institute. To overcome such type of scarcity we organized many program by the various Departments to make them aware in every aspects of their life weather it is related to their mental and Physical fitness.

4. The Practice:

University level youth festival for the session 2021-2022 was arranged from 22 April. 2022 to 25 April 2022 at BrijlalBiyani Science college Amravati. 23 students from our college, of Arts, Commerce and Science faculty participated in this youth festival. Among them 10 girls students participated in Folk-Dance, 06 for Group Song, 01 for Classical Music, 02 were Debate, 02 for Elocution, 01 for Poster Making and 01 for Rangoli. Department took the auditions of the students and selected students were guided and their practice taken by the experts. In this manner Sports department has its unique history such as two girls students were selected for university level Football tournament. Women Development Cell also arranged some programmes for girls student Such as Orientation programme to make them aware about WDC, on the occasion of World women's day to make them Aware about women safety Acts in indian judiciary, also arranged "Skin Care Programme", and guidance talk for girls students.

5. Evidence success:

The present practices were successful in many ways. The institute could contribute to the make awareness towards women safety and security with physical and mental health. The moral values and ethics were practically instilled in the minds of our stakeholders. The beauties of their lives are most important of the every aspect of society is instilled in their minds. The college campus almost became anti ragging and any harassment of women. The institution also takes care about their beauty, for that Skin Care program was arranged.

6. Problems Encountered Resources Required:

While practicing these some minor problems did occur. Initially the girls were not teased by the male students. Sometimes the other male student used to come to the premises. However our team manages to overcome these problems by a skillful monitoring to that wrong doer by scolding and calling their parents to know their wards wrong activity. The necessary resources like Principal, Vice-Principal, anti-ragging & WDC were used for this project.
