

About College

Mungasaji Maharaj Mahavidyalaya, Darwha is one of the oldest Arts, Commerce and Science colleges of the Yavatmal District completing its 50th years of existence in 2020. The college is established in 1971 by late Balasaheb Ghuikhedkar a renowned Sahkarmaharshi and sociologist of his time. His schooling cannot be traced out and perhaps this might be the reason which grieved him too much and consequently motivated him to provide the higher education to the students of adjacent area, the education which he himself could not get and remained thirsty all through his life and kept on yearning in desire to gain it.

Mungasaji Maharaj Mahavidyalaya is located in Darwha which is a taluka place surrounded by the rural areas. The college is affiliated to Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati. The College is on the hill place of the town and Yavatmali- Darwha state highway passes right from its main gate. Its southwards Yavatmal district is situated while at its east, north and west, talukas named Ner, Digra, Karanja and Arni are respectively located. It deserves special mention that the area is known for belt of Cotton. The college falls in the category of co-education (grant-in-aid) and every year in an average 2000 students are admitted for various academic courses. As far senior section of the college is concerned, almost 1500 students are accommodated in the various streams and programs offered by the college. To carry out all the functioning of the college, almost 75 teaching and non-teaching staff has been striving tirelessly since its establishment and the college has been continuously trying to ascend its progress graph having no feeling of satiety.

The cultural unit of the college has implemented Savitribai Fuley Adoption Scheme for the girls and also carried out Ghutkha Bandi and Tobacco Free Zones programmes. The college starts both the shifts with prayer.

SECTION 3 : OVERALL ANALYSIS

Mungasaji Maharaj Mahavidyalaya, Darwaha has completed 32 years of its existence and has been successful in its mission of providing educational facilities to students for backward rural area. There are some good features of college. Some such features are as follows:

- The College has 13 departments in the faculties of Arts, Commerce and Science.
- Subjects like Urdu.Lit. and Persian Lit. are fairly popular amongst the minority community of the region.
- * The college has a big campus which if properly utilized may provide ample scope for its further development.

TKM

- Teaching work is well monitored. Lecture method of teaching is supplemented by seminars/ group discussions and some teachers also use audio visual teaching aids for making their teaching effective.
- Being an under graduate college teaching is the main activity but some teachers take interest in research, publish text books and research papers, undertake UGC minor research projects and attend academic conferences.
- Remedial classes are held for weaker students.
- Sufficient welfare facilities and free ships and scholarships are available for students.
- The college has made good use of UGC assistance.
- Rashtriya Geet Dhara, Savitribai Fuley Adoption Scheme for the girls below poverty line, Ghutkha Bandi and Tobacco free zone programme, undertaken by the students deserve commendation.

The Peer Team would like to offer the following suggestions for further improvement in the functioning of the college.

Top priority may be accorded for improving the present status of Physics, Chemistry and Home Economics Laboratories. The laboratories may be adequately equipped and furnished.

Greater emphasis may be given to Faculty Improvement Scheme

The teachers may be further motivated / supported to engage themselves in active research.

More teachers should avail UGC assistance for minor research projects.

SK Mishra

New vocational - job oriented courses may be started under self financing scheme.

Teaching – research collaboration / linkages may be established with the university and other reputed neighbouring colleges. This becomes all the more essential because in some departments the college has very young – less experienced temporary, CHB / part time faculty.

Efforts may be made at appropriate level to appoint regular faculty on vacant posts.

Library facilities may be further strengthened by adding more books / journals. Computerization of library may be given priority.

The College may consider to constitute the following.

- 1) Research Promotion Cell
- 2) Career Counselling and Guidance Cell.
- 3) Grievance Redressal Cell,
- 4) Alumni Association.
- 5) Parents council.

The college may set-up an Internal Quality Assurance Cell, as a follow up of various steps taken by it so far in the process of NAAC assessment and accreditation.

The Peer Team appreciates the initiative taken by the college to get itself assessed and accredited by NAAC. The Peer Team also wishes to record its appreciation for the whole hearted cooperation, support and good will extended to it by the Management, Principal, Faculty and all other constituents of the College and look forward to its bright future.
